

Live Well, San Diego! Evaluation Framework: Summary

Area of Influence	Definition	Leading Indicators	Explanation
Health	Good health and enough energy to get things done on a daily basis	Life Expectancy	Measure of longevity and summarizes mortality at all ages
		Quality of Life	Quality adjusted life years
Knowledge	Learning throughout your life	Education Index*	Developed from American Human Development Index: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Percent with less than high school diploma • Percent with at least high school diploma • Percent with at least bachelor's degree • Percent with graduate or professional degree • School enrollment
Standard of Living	Effectively managing your economic life	Income Index*	Total labor force that is unemployed but actively seeking employment and willing to work
		Unemployment Rate	Created incorporating: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Median income • Disposable income • % of households spending more than 1/3 income on housing
Community	Physical environment and sense of security in the area where you live	Security Index*	Created incorporating perception of safety, violent crime rate, victimization
		Physical Environment Index*	Created incorporating air quality, water quality, beach closures
		Built Environment Index*	Created incorporating population density, public space opportunities, quality of housing, transportation access
Social	A sense of connection with the area and people where you live	Vulnerable Population Index*	Created incorporating persons with self-care difficulty, linguistic isolation, without health insurance coverage, population with food insecurity
		Engagement Index*	Created incorporating volunteerism, charitable giving, membership of community organizations, percent of persons registered to vote and voting

Note: Indicators without asterisks are measures/indices that already exist.

Measures with asterisks (*) are being created by combining existing measures/indices.